ONLY THE JOURNAL PRINTS

Auction Sales. ADVERTISED

PAGE 12.

NO. 6,027.

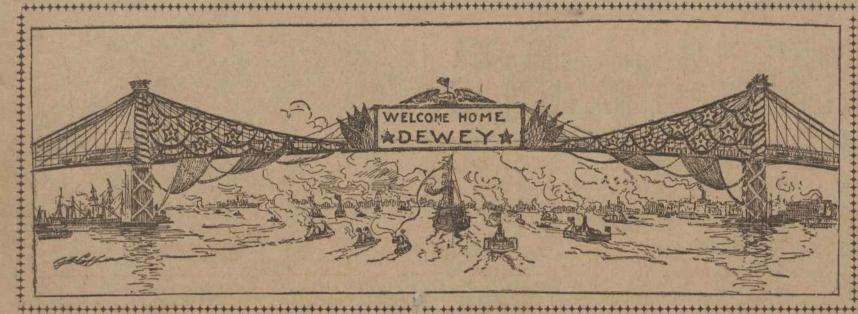

THURSDAY-Cloudy.

By New York Journal and Advertiser. -NEW YORK, MAY 18, 1899.-14 PAGES.

THURSDAY-Cloudy.

PRICE ONE CENT In Greater New York | Elsewhere, and Jersey City. TWO CENTS

ADMIRAL DEWEY WILL LEAVE MANILA ON HIS FLAGSHIP HOMEWARD BOUND F

WHEN THE OLYMPIA COMES UP THE EAST RIVER—A SUGGESTION.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE JOURNAL AND ADVERTISER. (Copyright, 1899, by the New York Journal and Advertiser.)

HONG KONG, May 17. === Admiral Dewey has notified Consul Wildman that he will arrive at Hong Kong on May 25.

cerning the Admiral's Movements.

Reception Committee of Fifteen Hundred to Greet the Returning Naval Hero Planned by the Mayor.

the most splendid event in the history of New York became still more apparent yesterday. On every hand plans for his

The Mayor has not yet appointed the committee of citizens called for in the fint resolution of the Council and Board Aldermen. He is already and Board Aldermen. He is already and Board Aldermen. He is already and Board Aldermen. of Aldermen. He is already overwhelmed with petitions from citizens who beg to be

It is probable that a general committee 1,500 will be appointed and an executive committee of 100.

Bridge a lavishly decorated, gigantle triumphal arch, under which Admiral Dewey will sail, meets universal commendation. McCall, who presented the Fenture of the Journal. resolution calling for the $150,000 appropriation, said yesterday that he wanted to see the Governor of every State here, taking part in the reception. "I should like at least four immens stands erected for the accommodation of poor people, who cannot afford to pay the great prices that will be charged by speculators," he said. "I should like also to see arrangements promptly begun to secure special rates from railroads and From a Poet, Almost Blind.

President King, of the Merchant's Association, favors a canvass of the city by the Police Department to get a complete list of boarding houses and hotels with list of boarding houses and house when their rates.

Plans for the $100 a plate dinner are progressing favorably. It was said yes-terday that O. H. P. Belmont probably would be the president and Frank Th-ford the treasurer, and that the Commit-tee of Arrangements probably would con-sist of these two, together with Edward Lanterbach, R. C. A. Smith, James J. Coogan and Henry Clews.

Guests of the $100 Dinner. The list, so far, of those who will attend the dinner, is understood to be as

GEMS OF PATRIOTISM 1/167 FROM THE PEOPLE.

Send in Your Dimes. Those who wish to join in the loving cup testimonial to Admiral Dewey should send their dimes to Journal Dewey Loving Cup Fund, P. O. Box

Please remember that nothcepted from any one contribbe a people's testimonial.

F+++++++++++++++++++ here is one steady stream of dimes for Bounhouser, Mrs. Dewey Loving Cup. And with almost Day, Mrs. Sarah.

The Journal Publishes the First Some of these letters are long and some are short, but in each one of them there is an expression of patriotic sentiment which shows the pleasure the giver takes in tainly Admiral Dewey will have in his

AMELIA BINGHAM

Should Have Been of Gold.

pressed in gone sent one of Camorina gratified to have sent one of Silver, natural nuggets than a piece of silver. VERO EDMUNDS, Jersey City Heights, N. J., May 13, 1899, March on with your patriotism. It is the grandest thing about your paper. MRS. F. STACY.

S. G. MINARD, of New York, JESSE S. COOPER, JR., of Dover, Del.

First of May, ninety-eight, at Manita.

In first rate style be done them up,
With his fine ships of war, sir,
I send ten cents for that loving cup;
With a hip! hip! hurnah! sir.
Excuse poor writing. I am seventy years
ild and more than half blind oor writing. I am seventy year re than half blind. WILLIAM J. SMITH. These are some of yesterday's subscrib rdt, Mrs. P.

Albert, Mrs. M. Julius, Mrs. L.

Master D.

SUES HIS BROTHER FOR LOSS OF WIFE. Germany the Only

e dimes and letters come from the and the South, the East and the W. D. Zimmerman, of Chicago, Wants His Buffalo Brother to Pay $65,000, and Alleges a Conspiracy, Including His Wife and a Physician.

> Buffalo, N. Y., May 17,-William D. Zim- their daughter was born in a sanitarium at know everything merman has begun suit for $65,000 dam-He may feel a ages against Dr. James W. Putnam, Charles

The charge is that the defendants con-orney of Chicago. C. D. Zimmerman is mental of leading business man of Buffalo. Dr. prevented says by utnam is the son of James O. Putnam, former United States Minister to Belgium, and is an expert on mental and nervous an Old Woman While Racing.

MOB TAKES VENGEANCE ON THREE BICYCLISTS.

fell upon the three wheelmen and beat and kicked them for several minutes.

A stranger with a buggy drove up, drew a pistol, stood off the crowd, and finally lifted two of the bleyclists into the vehicle and drove away. The third bleyclist managed to gain his wheel and made his escape just as the patrol wagon drove up.

The woman was taken to her home in a driver crowd.

The President's visit here is nearly at an end. The ume of departure has not been definitely fixed, but he will probably reach washington invigorated and driver away. The third bleyclist managed to gain his wheel and made his escape just as the patrol wagon drove up.

The woman was taken to her home in a driver crowd.

The President's visit here is nearly at an end. The ume of departure has not been definitely fixed, but he will probably reach which found expression in the German definitely fixed, but he will probably reach washington invigorated and definitely fixed, but he will probably reach washington invigorated and definitely fixed, but he will probably reach washington invigorated and definitely fixed, but he will probably reach washington invigorated and definitely fixed, but he will probably reach washington invigorated and well.

So far from regarding war with the United States and the condition of the Anti-American feeling which found expression in the German washington invigorated and the condition of the crowd, and finally washington invigorated and the condition of the crowd, and finally washington invigorated and the condition of the condition of the crowd, and finally washington invigorated and the condition of the crowd, and finally washington invigorated and the condition of the condition of the crowd, and finally washington invigorated and the condition of the crowd, and finally washington invigorated and the condition of the crowd, and finally washington invigorated and the condition of the crowd and the condition of the crowd and the crowd and the crowd and the condition of the crowd and the crowd and the crowd and the crow

DR. M'ENROE DIES AFTER

Only the Day Before He Had Been Appointed Professor of Materia Medica at Cornell.

Dr. William H. McEnroe, of No. 145 The Call for a Special Legislative Session West Eighty-second street, died at his home, yesterday, from paralysis of the He ate a hearty lunch at midnight. Soon after 2 a. m., Mrs. McEnroe was awakened by her husband's struggles for breath. He was dead when Dr. Alfred R. Friday afternoon it will be until Wednes-received the appointment of Professor of Materia Medica and Therapeutics at Cornell University. He had been an applicant for this position for some time.

Session of the Legislature has prescribed. President to Present His Sword. ure of Admiral Dewey's arrival in Washing- convenes.

A subscription of $50 for the Dewey ome was sent to the Journal yesterday by Dr. William T. Jenkins, of the Department of Health.

to law.

7. Putnam says that he examined into s. Zimmerman's mental condition, and that the case was not a proper one commitment to an asylum without gives the woman the right of a jury trial, declared that he have a result of the conditions. William Zimmerman's wife was Miss Jennie Fougner, the favorite niece of the late Jeremiah Rusk, President Harrison's Secretary of Agriculture, and for some time she was a member of Secretary Rusk's family. She is now in Bergen, Norway.

C. D. Zimmerman says the real reason for his sister-in-law's flight was the fear that his brother would put her in an insane asylum.

William Zimmerman married Miss Fougner in New York City in 1895. In 1896

PRESIDENT CHECKS

terday That He Has Not Yet Considered the Subject.

night, while three bicyclists were racing Kinley has not yet given consideration to the Peace Conference. at breakneck speed on Orleans street, one the subject of an extra session of Congress. of them ran over Mrs. John Wisman, aged This statement was made officially to

from his duties at the White House. He A MIDNIGHT LUNCH.

MAZETEERS WILL GO

Has Disarranged Original Plans.

When the Mazet Committee adjourns on arrived.

y the day before Dr. McEuroe had day, May are it was sessions a day, and y the day before Dr. McEuroe had four days a week, two sessions a day, and y the day before Dr. McEuroe had four days a week, two sessions a day, and y the day in the work mapper and day, May 31. It was intended to meet session of the Legislature has necessitated the change, as the Assemblymen have to interest. Washington, May 17 .- A notable feat- be in Albany when the Legislature re-ton will be the presentation to him by the President of the superb jewelled sword made by authority of Congress as a testimonial from the Government.

The sword was completed some time ago, but owing to its delicacy and great value was deemed best not to send it to the Admiral. It is now in a safe deposit vault awaiting his coming.

The presentation to the officers and men of the Admiral's flagship of the handsome medals authorized by Congress will occur probably at the same time.

Dewey Home Fund.

A subscription of $50 for the Dewey

The Famous Journalist Begins His Series of Articles on the Great Peace Conference.

Russian Emperor Hopes America Will Help Establish International Tribunal.

Power to Oppose All Efforts to Limit Immense Euro-

With the following specially cabled d Czar, the projector of the conference, on one giv-his plans for the meetings and his hopes of the results it would ing peace of the world. Mr. Stead's inthe terview appears below and also the purposes and prospects which the Czar confided to him. It is a notable beginning of what will without doubt be a famous series of articles on a historical gather-

The Hague, May 17.—While I cannot repeat directly anything EXTRA SESSION TALK. the Czar said to me during our in-They Had Run Down and Fatally Injured Official Announcement Was Made Yes- terview a few days ago at St. Petersburg, it is permissible to tell + America that he is in excellent spir-Chicago, Ill., May 17.-At 7 o'clock to. Hot Springs, Va., May 17.-President Mc. its and full of hope for results from

There is no trace in St. Petersburg of the Anti-American feeling

The woman was taken to her home in a pectedly to-day. He has fully recovered dying condition. The from the illness which kept him so long dectiny of Furna the Czar exdestiny of Europe, the Czar ex-If again in the evening.

This morning President and Mrs. McKinley drove to Healing Springs, about three miles up the valley. The afternoon he spent on the veranda with his wife.

pressed the utmost confidence that the American delegates will stand by those of Russia, France and Eng-OVER TILL MAY 31. of some definite, practical system of international arbitration for all disputes turning on question of law, on interpretation of teachers or on ers composing this conference. investigation of questions of fact.

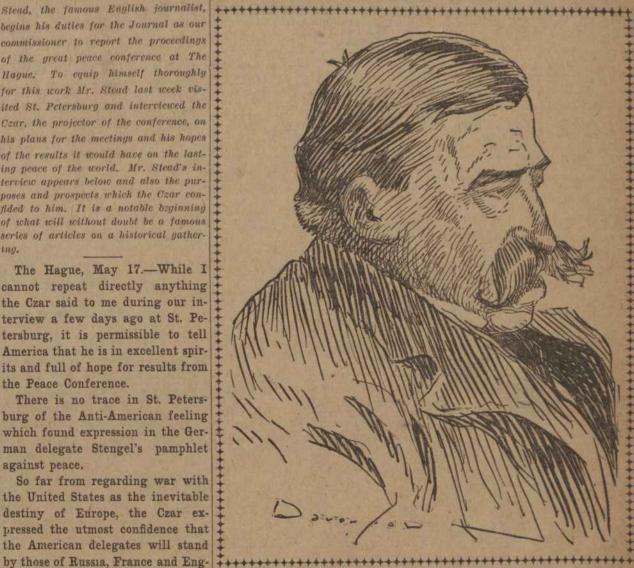

principle of arbitration in all ques- whereby the powers agreed, in the a Republican source. tions involving national honor and case of the Turkish question, to in- Jacob Hess, one of the representa-

The tribunal which it is hoped before fighting. have worked so successfully in the as they might choose. and with the authority of, the pow-

Wm. A. Mahoney, the Pool Room King, Declines to Respond to Mr. Mos 's Corkscrew. Drawn by Homer Davenport Yesterday at the Mazet Investigation

pean Armaments. He Tells Moss He Took the Position of Police Commissioner Because He Needed the Salary. Much Testimony About Pool Rooms.

land in securing the establishment Chief of Polce Devery is Bored by the Revelations by the Inquisitor's Sleuth. Drawn by Homer Davenport Yesterday at the Mazet Investigation.

The Czar also believes the Ameri- proposed is simply an extension of voke the mediation of other powers tives of the G. O. P. on the Police will issue from the conference for By the establishment of this prin- private business being unremunerative, the settlement of questions "du ciple the powers would voluntarily he needed the $5,000 salary. Because of droit" will probably be found on refer serious disputes to arbitration it he voted to retire Chief McCullagh the same principles as those which and the mediation of such powers and elevate Devery to the place.

Continued on Third Page.

THE patient digging of the Mazet The question of mediation to be T Committee resulted yesterday in unearthing a little corruption. But, to the intense disgust of the comcans will favor recognition of the that clause of the treaty of Paris mittee and its counsel, it flowed from

Board, frankly admitted that he accepted a place on the Police Board because, his

J. R. Wood and Joel S. Harris, fice of the men employed by Moss to spy out postal, telegraph and international It will be proposed that each pow- gambling houses-Harris is scarcely more railway bureaus at Berne, Switzer- er name one of its highest court than a boy-gave the addresses of many land. That is to say, a small body judges to act as permanent arbitra- gambling places and told of the games ers would be authorized to deal vited, thus effacing politics and man McConnell of keeping a pool room, with such questions in the name of, other influences in the selection of answered a few questions and refused to answer many. The full anthority of the committee was invoked without are